

As local radio stations are increasingly owned by out of state companies, it is very important that opportunities for local low power FM stations be increased to provide local programming, especially local news and weather information. Please support the expansion of LPFM service. Thank you.